MARKETING

Customer-Centric Marketing Approach

In this age of consumerism and materialism, consumers are constantly being inundated with marketing advertisements and promotional messages intended to attract them. Unfortunately, this strategy, honed over the years is proving to be inadequate and ineffective to a large extent.

To address the challenge of consumer marketing fatigue and be successful at implementing marketing strategies, there is the need to delve into the psychological aspect of marketing and consumer behavior, a key aspect of the BBA Marketing program offered here at Academic City.

Marketing at ACity

The program aims to produce graduates wishing to pursue a career in marketing and its related areas. It also equips students with the knowledge and skills for managing the marketing function to become professionals who can confidently lead and innovate marketing campaigns within a business environment locally and intentionally.

With a focus on consumer behavior and trends combined with an innovative approach to teaching, the course encompasses both traditional and new marketing approaches designed to give the student a holistic view of modern-day best-marketing strategies.
